

ROTARY CLUB OF GILROY
GRANT PROGRAM CRITERIA 2024 – 2025

To receive a grant request from the Rotary Club of Gilroy Endowment, the applicant must meet all the following criteria:

1. Local – funds will be used in the greater Gilroy area;
2. Charitable – recipient must be an organization, not an individual that is clearly a public service in nature; and
3. Special Function/Program – the applicant must provide a specific result for the program/project (no general operations, salaries, administrative and maintenance costs).
4. Impact – the contribution must benefit a segment of the Gilroy community.
5. Sharing – as a recipient, after implementation, the applicant agrees to provide Gilroy Rotary with a brief written description, and if possible, photographs of the grant funds at work.
6. Scholarships -- No grant monies will be given to any charitable organizations for scholarships.
7. Rotary Visibility – recipient will make every effort to publicize the Rotary Club of Gilroy name or logo related to the grant, if appropriate.

Focus and additional criteria for Community Grants Program 2024 – 2025:

In addition to the general criteria for charitable contributions, the Community Grants Program includes the following focus:

- Education
